

DEPARTMENT OF POLITICAL SCIENCE

Programme Outcome	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1) Demonstrate Knowledge &amp; skills necessary for active citizenship</li> <li>2) Explain &amp; evaluate the values structures institutions, process, behaviors &amp; policies of politics in India.</li> <li>3) Identify significant concept &amp; theories in political theory &amp; apply them to contemporary political problem.</li> <li>4) Analyze &amp; formulate effective oral &amp; in item skill utilizing scholarly approaches in Political science.</li> <li>5) Write clearly &amp; with purpose on issues of international domestic politics &amp; public policy.</li> <li>6) Hard &amp; Soft copy of curriculum learning outcomes of the programs &amp; courses are available in the department for ready reference to the teachers &amp; Students.</li> </ol>
Programme Specific Outcome	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1) Political science is an important subject for civil services main examination hence, its study at the undergraduate level highlighted the entire syllabus of political science in detail.</li> <li>2) Many students feel political science &amp; International relations as the popular &amp; beneficial IAS optional subject training ground for future IAS aspirants.</li> </ol>
COURSE OUTCOME
COURSE	OUTCOME
The constitutions of India	This course is designed to help a student to learn the constitutional designs of structure and institution and their work mechanism.
Basic concepts of Political Science	Basic Concepts of political science course introduce the student to the institution of state sovereignty, equality, justice and different theories in political science.
Western & Indian Political Thought	This course focuses on the development of political thought in the western world. A student study thinkers from ancient Greek to modern philosophers like Karl Marx. This course enables the student to study a wide variety thinkers and their thoughts from ancient to independent India &amp; Maps out the development of Indian Political thought.

Political Process & Institutions in India Part -I	The students learn to examine the various political process in India in their social and political context.
Political Process & Institutions in India Part -II	The student learns to focus on the local governance system in both Rural & Urban India in the context of democratic decantation in India.
Public Administration	The course introduces the discipline of Public administration and the structural & functional aspects of public administration of India. It focuses on the relationship between public & administration in India.
Indian Administration	The student understands the evolution of Indian Administration, acquaint with the functioning of the Indian Administration at Central level and appreciate the emerging issue in Indian Administration.
International Relations	The student learn to focus on the various aspects of International politics. For example : National power, National Interest Balance of Power, Collective security, arms control, disarmament etc.
International Organization	The student learn to focus on the evolution and weeds for international organistions & their role in various political context.